Camerata Chicago Chamber Orchestra

Announcing Our Residency at Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago Mozart C Minor Mass with the Fourth Church Choral Society

We are delighted to announce that Camerata Chicago has been appointed Orchestra-in-Residence at Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago. The inaugural concert of the residency will be a magnificent performance of the Mozart C Minor Mass on November 11, 2016 with the Fourth Church Choral Society, conducted by Drostan Hall. At the heart of the Fourth Church Choral Society are members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus and Lyric Opera, directed by Organist and Music Director John W. Sherer. The performance will comprise an eighty member double chorus, organ, chamber orchestra and four outstanding soloists:

- Laura Perkett, Soprano
- Kimberly Gunderson, Soprano II
- Cole Seaton, Tenor
- Daniel Richardson, Bass

Fourth Presbyterian Church is located in the Magnificent Mile neighborhood of Chicago directly across Michigan Avenue from the John Hancock Center. The relationship between religious faith and the arts is expressed in a comprehensive program of artistic expression that emphasizes excellence in performance as a part of regular public worship as well as concerts and dramatic presentations.

Camerata Chicago was founded in 2003 by conductor Drostan Hall. Camerata Chicago celebrated its Tenth Anniversary in 2013 with a six concert tour of Europe starring world-renowned Chicago cellist Wendy Warner. In the same year, Cedille Records' release featuring Wendy Warner playing celli concerti by Haydn & Myslivecek received stellar reviews and a nomination for the International Classical Music Awards, the European equivalent of a Grammy. The tour and CD garnered rave reviews:

"An-Out-of-this-World Experience: Formidable. Just like Camerata Chicago's performance under the baton of an exuberant magician, Drostan Hall. This internationally-known ensemble has a powerful aesthetic supported by exemplary cohesion." La Montagne Newspaper, France

"I loved everything about Camerata Chicago. The orchestra left nothing to chance, performing as if it was in Carnegie Hall. ... one of the artistic highlights of this year's Smetana Litomyšl Festival." Miroslav Zikmund, Smetanova Litomyšl Festival
