

The Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago

is honored to announce

Camerata Chicago as Orchestra-in-Residence at Fourth Church

To celebrate this new relationship, the Fourth Church Choral Society and Camerata Chicago will present Mozart's C Minor Mass in the stunning Fourth Church Sanctuary at 7:30pm on Friday, November 11, 2016.

This inaugural concert of the residency will be conducted by Drostan Hall and feature an eighty-member double chorus, organ, chamber orchestra, and four soloists:

Laura Perrett, Soprano
Kimberly Guderson, Soprano II
Cole Seaton, Tenor
Daniel Richardson, Bass

Tickets are available through Camerata Chicago at cameratachicago.org (312.987.1196)

This concert will also be recorded by 98.7WFMT for future broadcast.

Fourth Presbyterian Church—located on the corner of North Michigan Avenue and Delaware Place since 1914 and situated across from the John Hancock Center—is recognized nationally for its longstanding tradition of excellent music, both within worship and in the concerts it offers at least once a week. The Fourth Church Choral Society, directed by John W. W. Sherer, is open to all members of the community.

Camerata Chicago was founded in 2003 by conductor Drostan Hall. It celebrated its tenth anniversary in 2013 with a six-concert tour of Europe starring world-renowned Chicago cellist Wendy Warner. Both the tour and Cedille Records' release featuring Ms. Warner playing celli concerti by Haydn and Myslivecek garnered rave international reviews.
